A PHJERION MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.
LONDON, Oct. 27.—Captain Geo. Hampden
Whelley, late Member of Parliament for Pet ersborough, who, with Thomas Herbert was recently arrested for stealing plate jowely:
Mrs. May. Garable, a withow residing in South Kessington, was to-day found guilty and sentenced to six months' imprisonment.
Capt. Whalley rented a furnished house from Mrs. Gamble in April last, and resided there with has wife, his wifer sister and Thomas ing some stolen property, nearly all of which, however, has been recovered.
In consequence of Captain Whalley giving a worthless chock for the fit quarter's rent, rapid proceedings were taked: to recover posguis Captain Whalley suddenly went of, jeaving his servant gri in the house. The prisoners traveled to Borlogon, but Herbert returned, was apprecented, and Captain Whalley was estraited. In the proceedings
Mrs. Gamble Castin Whalley also received a room for her own use. She deposited a quantity of plate jewelry in her room, locked the door, out took the key with her. She also left slate fewelry and money in other parts of the house, and looked up drawers. Scaled in the collar site left a quantity of vine, which was placed in one compertment, covered with a sheet and scaled. In August she returned to the house and missed the property. In the front room she found the tapes and scales of the drawers removed. She missed a quantity of jewelry. All the silver was goon except a pair of candiesticks. She also missed money coins.

MN. Powers and the Tariff.

"They are charging me with being a "free trader." That is false and Mr. "Wadsworth and his friends know it. "I stand by the Democratic platform "which gives no uncertain sound as to the Brooklyn Rink to-night to hear Rev. Mr. Beecher's Speech Last Night.

"That is what Mr. Powers writes with his own hand, and that is where the BULLETIN placed him, and by his authority. He does not mean that he shall be misunderstood, and to that end has made his meaning so plain that anybody can comprehend it. The speech Saturday night is now known as "Wadsworth's wail."

THE Mt. Olivet Democrat has suspended publication. It was a good paper and ought to have been sustained by the folks in Robertson County.

Ms. Wadsworm's piteous, whining appeal to the people of Mason County to "take him up in their arms and carry him to Congress" was ludicrous in a high

Ir may interesting to know that the time when the "unarmed merchantmen" referred to by Mr. Wadsworth, were being burned on the ocean, was about the time General Sherman was burning the houses of non-combatants in Georgia Just about the same time we should say.

It is the general impression both among Democrats and Republicans that Mr. Wadsworth hurt himself badly by his Saturday night, speech. It was in de-cidedly bad taste and not what the people expected from the distinguished Sage of Sugar Loaf Hill. He snuffed defeat in the air and allowed his chagrin and anger to get the better of his judgment.

Mr. Wadsworth, on Saturday evening, when he referred to his record during the period that covered the war, and also tending the exposition, has returned to the war record of the editor of the BULLETIN, ought to have said that the BULLETIN, ought to have said that the difference between the two was that Mr. Wadsworth was ashamed of his and the editor of the BULLETIN was not. That Mr. Wadsworth's friends have had to apologize for him end no friend had ever found it necessary to do that for the editor of the BULLETIN.

Belleting, ought to have said that the difference between the two was that Mr. Wadsworth's friends have had to apolgize for him and no friend had evertound it necessary to do that for the editor of the Belleting. Mr. Wadsworth's friends have had to apolgize for him and no friend had evertound it necessary to do that for the editor of the Belleting and elect him without much opposition, but that he had found himself sally mistaken. So he begins to feel the "halter" draw, does he? Take him up and elect him without much opposition, but that he had found himself sally mistaken. So he begins to feel the "halter" draw, does he? Take him up and elect him without his friends have had to explain and apoligize for. Mr. Wansworm awas pleased to state on Saturday evening, in his speech at the court howe, that "the editor of the Belleting and the sall to day through the magnaminity of such men as himself." Is that so. His speeches in Congress the Belleting of the Belleting

Dropped Dead.

On Saturday afteraoon, about 1 o'clock, a tolerably well dressed man, applied to Mr. Heiser, of the European Hotel, for his dinner, with the explanation that he had no money to pay for it. Mr. Heiser very kindly took him into the dining room and provided him with the regular dinner, which the stranger was in the act of eating when he fell back dead in dinner, which the stranger was in the act of eating when he fell back dead in his chair. Dr. Browning was called in as soon as possible, and upon an examination of the body expressed the opinion that he died from heart disease. The deceased was about five feet, nine inches in height, with brown hair and beard and apparently about forty-dive years of age. From papers found on his person it appears that his name was John Sigz, and that he was a member of one of the Swiss colonies settled in the interior part of the State. A general letter of introduction among the papers showed that he visited this neighborhood with; a view of inducing some of our farmers to establish a creamery. He was recommended in the letter as a thoroughly competent and reliable person. The body was taken to Mr. Q.'A. Means' undertaking establishment to await the orders of his friends.

The Barbecue.

The Democratic pic-nic at the Germantown fair grounds on Saturday, was attended by from three thousand to four tended by from three thousand to four thousand people, although another large meeting was held that day by the Demo-crats at Bradford's Landing, which to some extent interfered with the atten-dance. It was however, a grand success in all respects. Mr. Beets spoke in the morning and Mr. Breckinridge in the af-ternoon. Both speeches were what their most ardent friends could have wished.
